Five reasons to book with us

1. We simplify business travel for you

Navigating business travel complexities is what we do best. From start to finish,we take care of every detail of your corporate trips, ensuring a seamless experience for all travellers. With our expertise, you, your teams, or your colleagues can stay fully focused on the job at hand and confidently explore new opportunities – with no hassles or distractions.

2. Your dedicated corporate concierge

When it comes to planning, booking, and embarking on a business trip, you can count on us for personalised service. We tailor every aspect to suit both the traveller and the business. You'll have a single point of contact, 24/7 support, and proactive management of every detail – it's like having your own personal assistant.

3. Seamless communication with one point of contact

With us as your Travel Counsellor, you'll always have a familiar face to reach out to at every stage – from planning to trip completion. You're never alone; our dedicated 24/7 duty office team is here to ensure your needs are met across different time zones and requirements.

4. Flexibility that fits your business

Recognising the diversity of businesses and travellers, we offer a fully tailored service that caters to various needs and budgets. Whether you're arranging solo or group travel, we ensure the same level of detailed and personalised service, giving small businesses access to the same benefits as larger corporations.

5. Unbeatable options, exceptional rates

Our strong network of carefully chosen suppliers enables us to negotiate exclusive rates and offers for you. From travel and accommodation to dining and more, we strive to provide cost-effective options without compromising on quality. We work tirelessly to ensure the best experience while staying within your budget and policy guidelines.

Techex Events

TRAVEL COUNSELLORS FOR BUSINESS

TechexEvents@travelcounsellors.com